

Brunello di Montalcino 2009

Decanter

A seductive and approachable package, it carries the vintage's heat well, offering ample ripe cherry and plum fruits on a backdrop of tar and leather. The tannins are integrated and brightening acidity keeps it fresh, though ultimately it does not suggest long ageing. Dusty earth, exotic flowers and fennel linger on the finish. Poured from magnum. February 2019.

