

Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G. "Nastagio" 2012

Although this wine is not labeled Riserva, it is released six years after the harvest as if it were. The 2012 Brunello di Montalcino Nastagio shows more robust and evident power. It also offers a rich and dense textural presentation that should serve the wine nicely as it evolves over the next 10 years or more in your cellar. Dark cherry and wild blackberry segue spice, leather, cola and licorice. M. Lerner Feb. 2018
