

Olmaia Sant'antimo Cabernet DOC 1994

Wine Spectator 94/100

An outstanding red, verging on classic quality. Inky-colored, with a powerful bouquet of currant, lead pencil and tar. Full-bodied, with full, well-polished tannins. The finish goes on and on. Just a tad more concentration of fruit at midpalate would give it a classic rating. Needs some time to mellow. Col d'Orcia is making great Cabernet at the moment. Best after 2001. 80 cases made. — JS
