

Brunello di Montalcino Riserva Poggio al Vento 2007

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

March 2015

Crushed berry, leather, scorched earth, carob and underbrush are just some of the aromas offered by this powerfully structured Brunello. The ripe, warm palate delivers layers of juicy black cherry, black raspberry, tobacco, clove and grilled herb alongside firm, chewy tannins. Drink 2017–2027. Karin O’Keefe
