

COL D'ORCIA

2019

ROSSO
DI MONTALCINO
D O C

Tart berries and crushed stone with rosy florals swirl up from the 2019 Rosso di Montalcino. It's silky and round in texture, with cool-toned red fruits laced with saline-mineral tones and saturating spice. A coating of fine tannin lingers as well, as tart cherries and blackberries are offset by spicy citrus. Very nice. Eric Guido. Tasting date: November 2021
